

DOING THE WORK
OF AN

Evangelist

2 Jan
4 2019

If the church does not evangelise, it dies. There is no place in the future of this country for a frightened, silent church. On the other hand, there is potential for enormous fruit for a church with bold evangelists who hold out the word of life, in season and out of season.

At this year's conference we want to help equip you to witness to the Lord Jesus with courage and faithfulness. To help us do that, Richard Coekin will be speaking from the book of Jonah, with complementary sessions on evangelistic preaching and on evangelism and holiness.

Along with this fantastic Bible teaching, trainees will be mentored in groups of 5–6 by experienced gospel workers from around the UK. Each trainee will prepare and deliver a short talk from a pre-assigned Bible passage, and will then receive constructive feedback. This can sound overwhelming at such a busy time of the year, but we hope it will be really useful for you – previous attendees have always thought so!

The conference is also an opportunity for you to get to know trainees from churches across the country and to take some time out from the busyness of day-to-day ministry.
