

9:38 is named after Matthew 9:38 where the Lord Jesus Christ, after observing the pitiful condition of the people and the shortage of labourers for the work of the kingdom, urges his disciples to, “Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”

9:38 exists to serve local churches as they seek to envision people in gospel ministry and raise up the next generation of gospel workers.

“ I can thoroughly commend the 9:38 ministry training initiative – it provides a vital support network, incisive Bible teaching and sober guidance for young people exploring the possibility of gospel ministry.”

DON CARSON,
International Speaker, Author & Professor of New Testament

“ We need more gospel workers to reach and disciple men and women both in this country and overseas. The 9:38 conferences are an important resource in helping men and women to decide whether working in God’s harvest field ‘full-time’ is the right way forward for them. I cannot recommend them enough!”

CARRIE SANDOM,
Proclamation Trust Director of Women’s Ministry

“ With our nation needing to send out more and more gospel workers to sow the seed of the word of God and reap the harvest, I am very grateful for the work of 9:38 in informing, equipping and challenging Christians to consider being gospel workers.”

PAUL WILLIAMS,
Christ Church Fulwood

MAXIMISE

YOUR GOSPEL MINISTRY

How do we seek to do that?

Annual national residential conference where ministry trainees are inspired and equipped to maximise their gospel ministry, students and workers are given the opportunity to consider full or part-time gospel work, and trainers are encouraged and sharpened in raising up others

Resources

Online articles and print resources sharing good practice, raising the profile of training and stimulating healthy thinking about gospel ministry

Consultancy
